

Bishop Bekah Williams Biography

Bishop Bekah, formally known as Rebekah Williams, is a gifted Psalmist, Teacher, Radio Personality, and Kingdom Ambassador hailing from Houston, TX. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from Clark Atlanta University and a Master of Arts degree in Professional Communication and Digital Media from Texas Southern University. Beyond her academic achievements, she is a resilient lupus survivor of 15 years, and the founder of the Sophia Threlkeld Lupus Foundation, Inc.

With an extensive background in media, she has served as a radio personality for various stations and media entities including 93.7's Blessed Beatz and Gospel Radio

Nation's "The Kingdom Turn Up." She served as the millennial addition to the Yolanda Adams Morning Show and currently serves as co-host on the Revive Show with gospel recording artist Gene Moore on KTSU 90.9FM. As a Media Mogul, she hosts a social media show with her father Pastor F. N. Williams II entitled: "What Does the Bible Say About That" that focuses on mental health strategies, emotional engagements, and biblical discussions.

In addition to her media endeavors, Rebekah is deeply rooted in community engagement and service. With over a decade of experience in community relations and media, she recently transitioned into the role of Senior Advisor for Community Relations for Mayor John Whitmire, bringing her expertise to the forefront in fostering strong community connections. Her lineage speaks volumes about her commitment to service, being the great granddaughter of the historical Faith Leader and Community Advocate, Rev. M. C. Williams, the granddaughter of Pastor and Community Activist, Dr. F. N. Williams Sr., and daughter of Pastor and Community Leader F. N. Williams II.

Her past roles, including Communications Specialist Supervisor in the Mayor's Office, have showcased her versatility in working with diverse communities and effectively communicating strategic content. Rebekah's commitment to community well-being is further demonstrated through her role as Blood Drive Coordinator 2nd Vice President for non-profit One Body Networking, Inc. organizing blood drives in collaboration with local organizations.

With her blend of communication expertise and psychological insight, Rebekah Williams continues to be a beacon of light in both her professional and philanthropic endeavors, embodying the spirit of service and leadership.
