

Dr. Mia K. Wright Biography

Co-Pastor Mia's unwavering determination and compassionate character serve as a beacon of inspiration, igniting the hearts and minds of those around her to strive for greatness.

Dr. Mia K. Wright is the Co-Pastor and Director of Ministries at the Fountain of Praise alongside her husband, Senior Pastor, Dr. Remus E. Wright. Pastor Mia preaches, teaches, leads the social media platforms, and oversees the ministries. Additionally, she is the Executive Director of Metamorphosis Incorporated, a women's empowerment organization. Metamorphosis encompasses the life-changing Metamorphosis

Women's Conference based in Houston, a mentoring program for young ladies, a compassion outreach, empowerment seminars, and international programs. Her work has inspired thousands to embrace the lifelong transformation to a place of fulfillment and purpose.

Mia knows what an empowered woman looks like. Raising three children as a single parent, her mother often worked two or three jobs while at the same time studying part-time to complete her college degree. This example of determination and grit propelled Dr. Mia to write her book, "UNTHINKABLE", which challenges readers to overcome boundaries and self-imposed limits in order to pursue their passion for living. Mia is a powerful speaker who encourages others with uplifting messages, relevant life stories, and skills that apply in faith-based and industry sectors. Her messages are motivating as well as encouraging. With a call to action, she elevates others to purposeful thinking with a higher mindset. People respond with testimonials of how they were encouraged to begin a new business, complete school, or be a better person. She is a sought-after motivational speaker, women's conference presenter, and corporate work-faith-life coach. Dr. Mia has shared transformational messages in churches, town halls, convention centers, hotels, corporate venues, schools, prisons, and mud huts worldwide.

Pastor Mia is a well-noted community influencer as well as being known among the congregation. She is a TEDx Speaker, a Senior Fellow with the American Leadership Forum Class XLV, a Life Member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated, and serves on the National Chaplain's Committee of The Links, Incorporated. Mia has been awarded many titles in the community; for example, as one of the University of Houston's Conversationalists, Houston's Top 30 Women, “Most Inspirational Person of the Year” nominee by StreamingFaith.com, and she was featured in the 2010 edition of Who’s Who in Black Houston.

Mia earned her Bachelor’s degree from the University of Texas at Austin in Biology and Chemistry. Following college, she was highly successful as a sales professional and training specialist with Merck Pharmaceuticals and Astra Zeneca Pharmaceuticals. In 2005 she graduated with honors with a Master of Divinity degree at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary where she participated in a Study Abroad Program on the History and Relevance of the First Century Church in Tunisia, North Africa. Dr. Mia also earned a doctorate in Organizational Change and Leadership from The University of Southern California.

Aside from her academic background and numerous professional accomplishments, her proudest achievements are her family. She and her husband of 30+ years are parents to three sons who fulfill their life’s purposes as a minister, an attorney, and a medical doctor.
