

Sky Houston

Event Host, Media Personality, and Empowerment Advocate

Sky Houston has a dynamic media personality, host, and empowerment advocate with a passion for using her platform to uplift, inspire, and drive impactful change. As the host of "The Sky Show with Sky Houston," she engages urban audiences with energy, authenticity, and a deep connection to the community. Her work spans radio, television, and live event hosting, where she brings a unique blend of professionalism, warmth, and relatability.

Sky is a dedicated advocate for empowerment and personal development. Through

The Sky Houston Empowerment Foundation is committed to helping individuals find their voice, maximize their potential, and overcome life's challenges. She also leads initiatives in public speaking coaching and business development, equipping entrepreneurs and professionals with confidence and strategy to succeed.

Whether elevating conversations around entrepreneurship, self-development, or community impact, she brings an energy that fosters unity, inspiration, and action.

As the host of this special fundraising event for Angels Surviving Cancer, Inc., Sky is honored to stand in solidarity with survivors, warriors, and advocates who are committed to ensuring that no one faces cancer alone. With her enthusiasm and heartfelt storytelling, she will guide the evening in a way that celebrates strength, resilience, and the unwavering power of hope.

For Sky Houston, this event is more than a moment—it's a mission. Together, we thrive beyond cancer.