

Khasauna Freney

At 39 years old, Khasauna Freney is a dedicated woman of God, a resilient single mom, and a passionate entrepreneur. With over 18 years of experience as a salon owner and hairstylist, she has built a thriving business that reflects her creativity and commitment to her craft.

In May 2021, Khasauna faced a life-changing challenge when she was diagnosed with triple negative breast cancer. With unwavering faith and determination, she emerged as a survivor, using her experience to inspire others. As a proud member of Angel Surviving Breast Cancer Inc., she serves as the chairperson for Healed Angels Living On (H.A.LO.), providing support and hope to those affected by breast cancer.
